BOOST FOR CHARITY: Local organisations fundraising on Domestic Abuse Awareness Day

Cash raised for a host of good causes

A FUNDRAISING event raised hundreds of pounds for domestic abuse and human trafficking charities.

The free event, hosted by Safer Poole Partnership, took place in Falkland Square and featured a live DJ provided for free by Southern Entertainment Services and a performance by Sounds of Soul choir.

There were children's activities and stalls offering a variety of food and drink. Over £600 was raised, which will be split between BCHA Women's Refuge, Dorset Rape Crisis, and the Purple Teardrop campaign.

The event was organised in partnership with Soroptimist International Poole, Borough of Poole, Dorset Police and Stand and Matter. Paul Tucker, campaigns and communications manager at BCHA, said: "We are extremely grateful to Safer Poole Partnership for putting on this event every year."
